STEP 2
INCLUSION INFORMATION
Each application must be accompanied by a letter from an inclusion professional that works with our child. This letter must outline your child's specific needs and limitations as they may be related to summer camp. Please be as detailed as possible as we want to do our best to include your child in as many activities as possible. If there are specific activities that we can complete with your child when inclusion is not possible, please detail this as well. We cannot guarantee these activities will be completed.
